EGFW 12292, 7 April 1961

1. We have reviewed the correspondence relating to AECASSOWARY 34 and to the potential internal asset mentioned in the Reference above. We cannot conclude that AECASSOWARY 34 misrepresented this internal asset to Willard D. FULWYN or that he is of any less interest than apparently is indicated in OSSA 9758, 29 July 1960 (not received by COS, Germany, or COB, Frankfurt).
2. AECASSOWARY 29 debriefed the mother of AECASSOWARY 34 for a very short period due to her recent heart condition and the results were forwarded in OSSA 10131, 26 January 1961. AECASSOWARY 29 has not returned to Sweden to 'follow-up' the debriefing, as suggested in paragraph 3 of OSSA 10131, pursuant to the instructions contained in DIR 27595, 2 March 1961. We will continue to debrief AECASSOWARY 34's mother on positive Intelligence and the potential internal assets, including the subject mentioned in OSSA 9758, upon receipt of requirements and instructions from Headquarters.
3. Headquarters' suggestion in EGFW 11685, 6 December 1960, that AECASSOWARY 34 himself might be considered as a REDSKIN traveller paralleled the thinking in the field. We had definitely considered the possibility that AECASSOWARY 34 might travel this summer to see his mother if she were not to be permitted to immigrate. AECASSOWARY 34 had suggested this possibility to AECASSOWARY 29 earlier. However, AECASSOWARY 34's mother immigrated to Sweden and the primary reason for AECASSOWARY 34's projected travel was in this way negated, as indicated in FROB 8513, 6 January 1961. Since we have not fully debriefed AECASSOWARY 34's mother, particularly on the subject mentioned in OSSA 9758, 29 July 1960, we cannot as yet determine whether there are other sufficiently cogent reasons for AECASSOWARY 34 to make a special trip to the USSR. We must therefore consider at this time that AECASSOWARY 34 is not being considered at this Base as a REDSKIN candidate. It may be that the ☐ has other plans, however. Nevertheless we are still attempting to locate a substitute for AECASSOWARY 34 to contact the potential internal asset, particularly since the subject of FROB 8119 indicated he was no longer willing to make the trip, as we reported in EGFA 33307, 16 February 1961. We have not requested a cancellation of the POA in this case as we hope we may still be able to persuade Subject of FROB 8119 to make a trip at a later date. We would appreciate any further comments from Headquarters or ☐
